

Domain:	.net	.com	.org	.edu	.gov
What is the url of each website? (You may attach a printout of the first page of the website instead.)
How many websites did Google return? Provide the number.
How many "sponsored" sites showed up? Give the number.
Choose a webpage. How many ads on this page? Give number.
What is the homepage of the website? Hint: Cut back the url to the domain. Provide URL.
Is there a mission, or "about us" or "who we are" page? Y or N
Is the author/group responsible explicitly stated? Y or N
Are there any credentials given for the author/s? Y or N
Is there a phone number or email for further contact? Y or N
What is the latest date given on this page? Provide date or N/A
Are there references for the information given? Bibliography? Y or N
If there are references, do they appear to be trustworthy and current? Y or N
Give the website a Grade: A, B, C, D or F for quality.

Briefly, in a few paragraphs, compare the quality of the information from the different domains, considering bias vs objectivity; research vs opinion; grammar; spelling; good design vs bad design. Look at the pages carefully and critically. Continue on the back of this page.